PEARSON ENGLISH INTERACTIVE 2.0

What makes it great?

- With all content online, and short, structured sessions learners can study anytime, anywhere.
- Automatic grading gives students their results immediately so they can easily see how they are progressing.
- The rich video-based lessons engage learners with an undercurrent of humor, levity and naturalness that involves them in the stories.
- The design of the course gives the sense of a human teacher providing guidance, so it's ideal for self-study, and teacher-led classes.
- Teachers can individualize instruction, interacting with students outside of the classroom so that class time can be used for face-to-face interaction.
- Institutions can administer this course easily as it is all online, and can offer it on its own or to supplement other courses.

Approach to skills

- listening (top down and bottom up skills)
- speaking (role plays, video scenarios)
- pronunciation (repetition of targeted expressions)
- grammar (explained in video lessons with extensive structured practice)

Secondary focus on reading, writing and vocabulary. These sections are task-focused, and are used to support the functional communicative goals of each unit.

What's new in 2.0

- Completely new videos with updated scripts, new scenes, cast and look
- Closed caption at point of use (on/off option)
- Assessment - new CASAS Listening and Reading practice tests
- Content updated to reflect video changes and include new video clips for practice
- GSE booklets
- Completely online - no workbook
