MODULE 2: LANGUAGE CHOICE 7-12

PRACTICE

Preferences (1) Complete the description.

I'm a very active person and I really like 1. doing sport. I enjoy 2. football and tennis and I'm really 3. into doing gymnastics. I'm also creative and I like 4. music and singing. I also like 5. collecting coins and stamps but I'm 6. not into playing board games like chess. They're really boring! I enjoy 7. playing computer games and I do it 8. very much.

Present Perfect (1): Irregular verbs Complete the sentences with the 3rd forms of the verbs in brackets.

1. Gary is happy. Arsenal have won (win) the game.
2. Mark is here. I've seen (see) him.
3. The laptop is broken. It has fallen (fall) off the desk.
4. You look sad. What has 5. happened (happen)?
5. The classroom is empty. The students have 6. gone out (go out).
6. I feel sick. I've eaten (eat) too much.
7. The jacket is clean. I've washed (wash) it.

Present Perfect (1) Complete the sentences with correct forms of the verbs in brackets.

1. I'm not hungry. I 10. haven't eaten (have eaten) lunch.
2. Her shoes are dirty. She 11. hasn't cleaned (not clean) them.
3. My laptop is not here. 12. You've taken (you take) it?
4. We don't have your address. We 13. have lost (lose) it.
5. It's cold in here. The window 14. must be (open) the window?
6. I can't discuss the film with you. I 15. haven't read (not read) it.
7. Mark is not here. He 16. hasn't left (leave).
8. I can't go out. I 17. can't write (not write) the essay for tomorrow.

Opinions: think that Use the cues in brackets to complete the sentences.

1. I think that 18. chess is boring (chess / boring).
2. I don't think 19. board games (board games / very interesting).
4. I don't think 21. yoga (yoga / very exciting).
5. I think 22. free running (free running / challenging).

Modifiers Choose the correct modifiers to complete the computer game review.

The story is very good amazing but the game play is absolutely slow. The characters are absolutely interesting and the graphics are very creative. The locations are very interesting and the graphics are absolutely bad and the music is absolutely terrible. In conclusion, I like the game but some things in it are not very good.

some, any, no, a lot of, a few, a little Choose the correct words to complete the text.

I love watching films. When I have 24. a few / 25. a little money, I buy a DVD. I have 26. a few / 27. a little of famous Hollywood films, 28. a couple of / 29. a few old films and 30. some / 31. any comedies. I don't buy 32. some / 33. any horror films - I hate them. On weekdays, I have 34. any / 35. no time to watch films. But on Saturday, I invite 36. some / 37. any friends over and we usually watch 38. a few / 39. any films. If there are 40. no new films, we watch the old classics. And we always have 41. no / 42. a lot of fun.

REFERENCE

Preferences

Verb + noun: I'm in chess. I'm not into board games.

Verb + -ing: I enjoy playing chess. I like playing board games.

Verb + -ed: I've seen the film. I haven't seen the film.

We use the Present Perfect to talk about past actions when we can see their consequences now.

Present Perfect (1)

Verb + noun: We've lost our address. We haven't lost our address.

Verb + -ed: She hasn't come yet. She has come yet.

Form: Subject + have / has + past participle.

Irregular Verbs

We have 43. worn (wear) a pair of jeans.

Opinions

It is very important to listen to your teacher. I think (that) it is important to listen to your teacher. It's not very important to listen to your teacher. I don't think (that) it's important to listen to your teacher.

I like playing sports. I'm not into board games.
REFERENCE

Preferences (1)
Verb + noun
I'm into chess.
I'm not into board games.
I like sport.
I don't like yoga.
I enjoy computer games.
I don't enjoy gymnastics.

Verb + -ing
I'm really into acting.
I'm not into collecting stamps.
I like playing chess.
I don't like writing.
I enjoy laying computer games.
I don't enjoy making things.

would like + to try + -ing/noun
I'd like to try making jewellery.
I'd like to try yoga.

every
I play chess every weekend.
I do it every Saturday.

Present Perfect (1)
We use the Present Perfect to talk about past actions when we can see their consequences now:
I've had lunch. (so now I'm not hungry)
She hasn't come. (so now we are worried about her)
We've lost the key. (so now I can't open the door)

Form: Subject + have/has + -ed form of the verb (see Irregular Verb List p.115)
I have had lunch.
He hasn't had lunch.
Have they had lunch?

Opinions: think that
It is very boring.
I think (that) it is very boring.
It's not very interesting.
I don't think (that) it's very interesting.

Modifiers
Modifiers come before adjectives or adverbs:
That game is very good.
I play it very well.

General adjectives
It is quite interesting.
It is very good.
It is really nice.

Negative adjectives
It is quite difficult.
It is very boring.
It is a bit long.
It is really bad.

Strong adjectives
It is really fantastic.
It is absolutely terrible.

some, any, no, a lot of, a few, a little
We use:
• some with uncountable and countable plural nouns, usually in affirmative sentences.
  There are some good museums in Barcelona.
  I've got some new CDs.
  We still have some time.
• any with uncountable and countable plural nouns, usually in questions and negative sentences.
  Do you have any biscuits?
  I don't eat any meat.
  Are there any foreign students in your class?
  I don't need any help.
• no with uncountable and countable plural nouns.
  There are no girls here.
  I have no money.
• a lot of with uncountable and countable plural nouns.
  We know a lot of people.
  He eats a lot of fatty food.
• a few with countable plural nouns.
  I'd like a few apples.
  I've got a few good friends.
• a little with uncountable nouns.
  Give me a little time!
  We've got a little money.