M = Man W = Woman

W: Come on! You just sit around all day. Why don't you do something?

M: What?

W: I don't know – get an interest, go out, meet people ...

M: Why?

W: It's good for you! Join a group ... or something. Look, here are some interesting ones. The Film group, The Travel group, the Sport group and the Laid-back group.

M: The Laid-back group?!

W: Yes, well. So which is the right group for you?

M: Oh, I don't know ...

W: OK. Let's see. Do you do a lot of sport?

M: No, I don't. Not really. Well, not at all. I don't like it.

W: OK. Do you like films?

M: Yes, I do. Everyone likes films ...

W: OK!

M: But I don't watch them very much.

W: Oh. Well, do you like meeting people then?

M: Ah, yes, I do.

W: OK!! And do you travel a lot?

M: Me – travel? No, I don't, but I like ... the idea.

W: Well, do you take a lot of photos when you travel?

M: No, I don't. Hmm. Sorry.

W: Right. That's it!

M: That's it?

W: OK. One more question: Do you relax a lot?

M: That's a strange question! Of course I do. I really like relaxing.

W: Yes, that's true ...

M: So, which group do you think is right for me?

W: Well, this one ... of course!

UNIT 2 Recording 3

I = Interviewer P = Pilot W = Window washer

I: And today on Radio 99 we talk to some high flyers – men and women who work in very high places around the world: high buildings or mountains or planes. Our first guest has breakfast with his family in London, lunch on a plane, and dinner in Singapore. He leaves home on Monday morning and only gets home on Thursday. Of course he's a pilot, and he flies the long-distance London to Singapore route for British Airways. Good morning, Daniel.

P: Good morning.

I: Well, you travel a lot ... but do you actually like it?

P: Yes, yes I do.

I: And what does your family think about your job?

P: Well, they're OK about it. I mean, they think it's a good job. It's true that I'm not at home for three or four days a week. But I phone my family from the plane and from the airport in Singapore. Yes. They like my job and my routine, for them it's normal.

I: You have a boy and a girl, is that right?

P: Yes, that's right – six and eight years old. William and Sonia.

I: And William ... does he want to be a pilot?

P: No, he doesn't! He doesn't want to fly. He wants to be a teacher. But Sonia wants to be a pilot like me.

I: OK. Thanks, Dan. Let's move on. Our next guest is also a high flyer – but of a very different kind. He's a window washer from New York. He washes windows on high-rise buildings in the city. He leaves home at six every day and starts work at seven. He has breakfast on the thirtieth floor – actually outside the thirtieth floor – he has lunch on the fortieth floor, and works all day in sun or rain. He finishes work at five and gets home for dinner. So why does someone become a window washer, Ted?

W: Well, my father washes windows; my older brother washes windows ... so I wash windows. I love it up high above the cars and the people. The only problem is the rain ... and the cold.

I: What does your family think about your job?

W: My wife doesn't like it. She thinks it's crazy. But she loves the money, it's very good money. And my son wants to be a window washer. It's normal in my family – it's a tradition.

I: So, you work all day outside the building.

W: Yeah, that's right.

I: You eat there, you phone your wife from there ...

W: Yeah. Oh, and I even read my emails from there. It's my office.

I: Well then, I have a question ... Where does a window washer ... you know, urm ... go to the bathroom?

W: Oh, well ... that's a window washer's secret!

UNIT 2 Recording 9

A and B = Tourists C = Tour operator

A: Oh look, Tourist information. We can ask there.

B: OK. You ask.

A: No, you ask. My English isn't very good.

B: You speak English very well. You ask.

A: No, you ask.

B: No, you ask.

A: OK ... Excuse me. Do you speak English?

C: Yes, can I help you?

A: Yes, thank you, my friend has a question.

B: Nooo ... ohhh ... uh ... OK ... We want to take a tour.

C: OK. Which tour is that? The Hong Kong Island tour, the Harbour tour, the Hong Kong by night tour?

B: Uhhh ... I don't understand anything.

A: She asked which tour.

B: Oh, the Hong Kong Island tour.

C: Ah, the Island tour, good choice, and I think we have a couple of places left on the tour tomorrow morning if you're interested in that one ...

B: Thank you, goodbye.

C: Oh. Goodbye.

A: What's the problem?

B: I don't understand her. She speaks too fast!

A: Oh, come on! Let's go back.

B: No, I don't want to. I feel sooo stupid!

A: Oh, come on.

UNIT 2 Recording 11

A and B = Tourists C = Tour operator

A: Hello. We're back.

C: Hello again! So, do you want the Hong Kong Island tour?

A: Yes. Er. Could you speak more slowly, please?

C: Of course. Would you like to take the tour tomorrow morning or afternoon?

A: Tomorrow morning. What time does it start?

C: At eight o'clock exactly.

A: Excuse me, eight o'clock ...?

C: Yes, at eight.

A: And where does it leave from?

C: The bus leaves from the front gate here.

A: Sorry, could you repeat that?

C: The bus leaves from the front gate.

A: The front gate? Here? Outside?

C: Yes, just over there. Do you see the sign?

B: Yes, I can see the sign. I can see it!

A: And when does the tour finish?

C: The bus arrives back here at 1p.m.

A: 1p.m. OK. How much does it cost?

C: 320 dollars per person.

A: 320 dollars. So, 640 dollars for two.

C: That's right.

A: OK, that's good. So could we have two tickets for tomorrow morning, please?

B: Er, do you take credit cards?

C: Yes, of course ...

UNIT 2 Recording 14

M = Man W = Woman

M: Oh no! Look at this mess. Where's the Hoover?

W: Urm ... Oh, here it is. I am surprised, Mark. Do you like cleaning?

M: Yes, I love it!

W: Uh, really?! Why?

M: Well, I study all week and by Friday my apartment looks terrible!

W: Right ...

STUDENTS' BOOK · AUDIO SCRIPTS

M: So on Saturdays I clean all morning. It makes me feel good. What about you? Do you like cleaning?
W: No, I don't! I hate it. I don't like cleaning or washing.
M: So ... what do you like doing?
W: At home, I like doing nothing! Well, I like playing video games and watching TV, you know ... just relaxing.
M: Me, too. But after the cleaning!

UNIT 3 Recording 1

intelligent, kind, talkative, friendly, funny, stupid, unkind, quiet, unfriendly, serious

UNIT 3 Recording 2

A: I don't like talkative people, and my friend José is usually very quiet. People think he's not very friendly because he's quiet and often serious, but in fact he's really friendly and he's sometimes very funny – not all the time, but sometimes. We don't like doing the same things, so we hardly ever do things together, maybe two or three times a year. For example, he likes computer games and staying at home and I go out a lot ... but it's not a problem. When we meet, he always asks me how I am, and he really listens to me. And when he phones me with a problem, I always listen to him. He's a good friend and we usually understand each other well.
B: My friend Rosa is usually very funny – she makes jokes and we laugh a lot. We like the same things, we're always together. We often go out to clubs – two or three times a week – and to parties ... She talks a lot, and she's a friendly person, but are we really close friends? I don't know ... I think I'm a good friend to her, but she ... when I have a problem, she hardly ever listens to me. So sometimes she's not very kind. She's an intelligent person, and I sometimes feel stupid around her. We don't always understand each other, but you know, she's a good friend ... I think.

UNIT 3 Recording 5

J = Jack R = Ron
J: Hello!
R: Hi, Jack. It's Ron.
J: Oh, hi. How are you?
R: Fine, thanks. And you?
J: OK.
R: Uh, well, I'm at my new office, you know I've got a new job ... Uh, the work's quite interesting and the people are very friendly ... Hello, are you there?
J: Yes. Yes, I'm still here.
R: ... and the work isn't too difficult ... Hello, are you there?
J: Yes.
R: Oh ... and, well, I haven't got my own office and one of the people in my office is really unfriendly ... Are you there?

J: Yes, I'm here.
R: Anyway, are you free tonight?
J: Yeah, I think I am. What do you want to do?
R: How about going to the cinema? I'd like to see the new Will Smith film.
J: Will Smith ... ah, wait, I'm busy. Sorry ...
R: Oh ... OK, well, maybe next time.
J: Yeah, see you.
R: Bye.

UNIT 3 Recording 6

D = Denise R = Ron
D: Hello!
R: Hi, Denise. It's Ron.
D: Oh, hi. How are you?
R: Fine, thanks. And you?
D: I'm OK. How's your new job?
R: Good. The work's quite interesting and the people are quite friendly ...
D: Uh-huh.
R: ... and the work isn't too difficult.
D: That's great.
R: It's not perfect. I haven't got my own office and one of the people in my room is really unfriendly ...
D: Oh, that's a shame!
R: Yeah. Anyway, are you free tonight?
D: Yeah, I think so. What do you want to do?
R: How about going to the cinema? I'd like to see the new Will Smith film.
D: Sounds good. Where's it on?
R: At the ABC in town.
D: OK. What time do you want to go?
R: It's on at six o'clock and at half past eight. What's good for you?
D: I finish work at five. So six is good.
R: Right. How about meeting at ... er ... half past five at the cinema?
D: Yes, that's fine.
R: Great! See you there.
D: Yeah. Oh, how about inviting Jack?
R: Hmm. You call him!
D: OK. Bye.
R: Bye.

6 My English teacher is great!

UNIT 3 Recording 10

W = Woman M = Man
W: What's a special occasion in your country?
M: Hogmanay.

W: Hog ... er ... man ...?
M: Hog-man-ay. Let me tell you about it. OK ... Hogmanay happens in Scotland on New Year's Day. In our families, on the day before Hogmanay, we always clean the house – all day – because it's important to start the New Year in a clean house. Then, in the evening, we usually have a big party with friends and family. At midnight we stand in a circle, join hands, sing 'Auld Lang Syne' ... you know. 'Should auld acquaintance be forgot ...'. I think people sing this in a lot of countries now. We also have a special custom. After midnight, the first person who visits the house gives presents to the family, usually shortbread or coal. This brings good luck. Then we eat and drink. The party often goes on all night. I like it because all our friends and family come together and it's a great start to the New Year!

UNIT 4 Recording 2

W = Woman M = Man
W: Hi! It's me.
M: Hi, Mum! Come on in.
W: Here, I brought you a plant. A small plant for your microflat!
M: Thanks, it's great! I'll put it here on the dining room table.
W: Oh, so this is the dining room.
M: Yes, well, this is where I eat.
W: There are only two chairs? It's good your father isn't here.
M: Mum, it's a microflat. There isn't a lot of furniture.
W: It's very ... sweet. Now, is there a living room?
M: Well, there isn't a separate living room. This is the living room. Just here.
W: Oh, I see. Yes, there's a sofa and a TV ... yes, it is a living room.
M: And here's the kitchen.
W: Oh, I see, three rooms in one – the dining room, the living room and the kitchen.
M: Mum, it's a microflat.
W: Is there a bedroom? Or do you sleep on the sofa?
M: Of course there's a bedroom. Come through here ...
W: Yes ...
M: Here it is.
W: This is nice ... but there aren't any shelves. Where do you put your things?
M: There's a wardrobe here.
W: Oh, but look, there is a bathroom!
M: Mum ...
W: ... and a toilet!
M: Mum ... Listen, do you want a drink? Let's go out to the balcony ...
W: The balcony! Is there really a balcony?
M: Of course there's a balcony. It's a microflat.

A: Fine. No problem.

UNIT 4 Recording 12

One of my favourite places in the world is Lake Titicaca. It's between Bolivia and Peru and is, urm, about 4,000 metres above sea level. The water is always very, very cold. I go there every year with my family and we stay in a small town near the lake. When I'm there I usually go out on the lake in a boat, and sometimes I visit one of the small islands. Sometimes there are big waves on the lake, but it's usually very quiet. So why do I like the lake? Well, I love its deep blue colour and it's a great place to relax.

UNIT 5 Recording 2

1 Hi. My name's Luis, from Spain. Welcome to my fridge! What have we got here? Well, there's some chicken and some fish – some sardines. They're for the barbecue tonight. It's my wife Carmen's birthday. And we've got some fruit: grapes and an apple. And of course, the baby's milk. And we've got some wine and some fruit juice for the barbecue. And at the back there's a ... oh no! Where is it? Carmen! Where's your birthday cake?

2 Hi, I'm Amy. I'm from Canada and I'm a vegetarian. And this is my fridge! On the top shelf I have some cheese, yeah, lots of cheese and a cucumber. And I've got some carrots. I love carrots! And on the next shelf, I've got some eggs and some yoghurt. Of course, I haven't got any meat. Hey, what's this? Look, a hotdog! Why is this here? And here I've got a bottle of water and lots of milk.

3 Hi, everyone. I'm Mike and I'm Australian. So, this is my fridge. Er ... I've got some leftovers from ... er from last week. And I've got lots of cola and ... oh look, a banana – why's that in the fridge? I don't eat fruit. And there's some bread, it's quite old, and some butter, yup, that's very old. Well, that's me! I don't go shopping a lot. I usually eat at the university.

UNIT 5 Recording 5

How much food does an average person eat in a lifetime? And how much drink? The answer is a lot!!!

Do you eat meat? Well, an average meat-eater eats 21 sheep in their lifetime and 1,200 chickens. Does that sound quite a lot? The good news is that he or she only eats 4½ cows. If you're a vegetarian, maybe you like beans? Well, on average British and American people eat 845 cans of baked beans in their life. And why is weight a problem for so many people? How many cookies does the average American eat? The answer is an amazing 35,000. And chocolate? Over 10,000 bars! And how much water or tea do people drink in their lifetime? Well, it's interesting that a person drinks about 60,000 litres of water and people in the UK drink about 75,000 cups of tea. Maybe it isn't surprising that people use 61 rolls of toilet paper a year. That's about 4,300 in their lifetime!

Wa: Certainly. The menu ...

M: Thank you.

Wa: Tonight's special is Chicken à la Chef de Saint Germaine de Paris Rive Gauche.

W: What's that?

Wa: It's grilled chicken with potatoes and green beans.

W: Is it French?

Wa: Not really ...

W: But it has a French name.

Wa: Well, that's true ... it's very good ...

Wa: Are you ready to order?

M: Yes, I'd like some soup and the special.

W: The same for me, please.

Wa: Thank you.

W: The name of our dish is the Italian special. It's very easy to make. You need some prawns, a can of Italian tomatoes, a large onion, a red pepper and two celery sticks – the vegetables need to be cut into small pieces. You also need some pasta, olive oil, black pepper and lots of herbs.

M: You heat the oil in a frying pan and then put all the vegetables in together for about two minutes. Then you throw in the prawns, some black pepper and the tomatoes. Then add the herbs. You cook everything for a minute or two ...

W: ... and leave to cook slowly. Heat some water in a pan and add the pasta. Cook for three minutes then take the pasta out of the water. Mix with the sauce and then eat our dish with some salad.

M: It's delicious. You'll love it!

Lia was born in Yugoslavia on the 14th July 1931. She lived in a small village and went to school when she was seven. In 1944, her family moved from Yugoslavia to Hungary because of the war. She wanted to go to university, but there was no money, so she started working in a sugar factory at seventeen. She had sugar for lunch and dinner every day for three years. She got married at twenty-five. She didn't have any children, but children always liked her. In 1969, she moved to Lake Balaton in Hungary and made a lot of money selling ice cream with her sister. She bought a house with the money, and now she rents rooms there.

Carol was born in the USA on the 14th July 1931. She went to a school for child actors in New York and at eight years old she had her own radio programme. For a few years, she stopped going to school and studied at home with her mother. She became a well-known radio actress. Later, she worked in a bookshop in New York. She met her husband there in 1951. They got married and had five children. In the 1990s, she didn't see her children very much because they lived abroad. She and her husband visited them sometimes. In 2002, they bought a house by the sea and now their children come and visit them.

M: Oh. Where did you go?

I: By the river. It was really beautiful.

M: That sounds good.

I: And you? What did you do?

M: Oh, I played football, cleaned the flat.

I: Who did you play football with?

M: With some guys from work. We play every weekend.

I: Really? Where did you play?

M: In the park. There's a football pitch there.

I: Did you win?

M: Of course. I scored five goals!

I: Ha! I don't believe you!

I = Interviewer B = Baruti Kaleb

I: Thank you for coming on the show, Baruti. We are all very interested to know more about your work. But, first of all, let's start from the beginning ... um, where were you born?

B: I was born in Johannesburg in 1962.

I: Can I ask you about your childhood?

B: Yes, of course. I was the fourth child in a very big family – there were eleven of us. My father was a teacher and my mother cleaned houses for rich people.

I: Did you go to school?

B: Yes, I did. Education was very important to my parents.

I: When did you decide to work with poor children?

B: When I was in school, one of my friends lost his parents. He had no family ... um ... no living grandparents, so he moved to a house for orphans. I visited him and when I saw his life there I decided to work with orphans.

I: When did you open your orphanage?

B: We opened it in 1996.

I: We?

B: Yes, my wife and I. We got married in 1990.

I: And who's your hero?

B: I'm glad you asked that – it's Mother Teresa. I often think about her words: 'I can do no great things, only small things with great love.'

I: That's very interesting. I have one more question: What's your favourite book?

B: Let me think about that. I like many books, but Long Walk to Freedom is one of my favourites. It's the story of Nelson Mandela's life in his own words.

I: That sounds interesting, thank you.

OK ... now, it's time to ask the audience for questions. Are there any questions for Baruti? ... Yes, you at the back ...

B: At a bank.
A: And do you sit at your desk a lot?
B: Yes, all day. I don't do much exercise.
A: Yes, me too. I'm here all day on the computer but I do Office yoga.
B: What do you do in an Office yoga class?
A: Oh, it's great. We meet here at Union County on Mondays and Wednesdays from seven-thirty to nine. We learn exercises that you do at your desk ... stretching and relaxing exercises.
B: Yeah. That's good ... er ... yes ... OK, OK. Office yoga. How much is it?

Conversation 1

- A: Hello, National Rail. Can I help you?
B: Yes, I want to go from London to Cambridge this morning. What time does the next train leave?
A: There's one at 10.52, getting into Cambridge at 11.54.
B: Sorry, could you speak more slowly please? What time does it leave?

- A: 10.52.
B: 10.52. That's soon. Er ... what time's the next train after that?
A: The next one leaves at 11.15.
B: And when does it arrive in Cambridge?
A: At 12.10.
B: 12.10. Great. Thank you.

M: OK, Tom. Nice to talk to you. Bye!
D: So who was that?
M: My brother Tom.
D: Oh, have you got a lot of brothers and sisters?
M: No, just one brother and one sister. Tom and Candy.
D: Uh-huh ... Do you see them a lot?
M: Well, Tom and I are very close. We often do things together – go to the cinema, play tennis ... but I don't see Candy very often. She lives in Scotland and we aren't very close. How about you, David?
D: I'm from a big family. I've got five brothers and a sister.
M: Five! That's a lot of brothers!
D: Yeah, but I don't see them often. Four of them live a long way away. Nick lives here in the city but we hardly ever meet.
M: Why not?
D: Well, he's quite serious and quiet and ... well, we like doing different things. He likes staying at home and reading and I ... I'm quite active and I like going out.

M: Oh, I see. It's the same for me and Candy. She doesn't like going out, and she isn't very talkative.
D: That makes telephoning a bit difficult.
M: Yeah ... so what about your sister?
D: Oh, Jenny and I, we're good friends. We're close. I talk to her a lot ... she phones me every day for a chat ... usually about her problems.
M: Yeah?
D: Well, she's got a ... difficult family situation. Her husband hasn't got a job, they've got three children ... no money. You know.
M: Oh. How old are the children?
D: They're very young – two, five and seven. All boys.
M: Wow, three young kids and no money! That's hard.
D: Yes, so we never talk about my life.
M: So she doesn't know about your new job?
D: No, she thinks I'm still a waiter!
M: But you have this great job now! You have to tell her. She's your sister, she'll be happy.
D: Maybe you're right ... I don't know, I feel uncomfortable. Ah, that's my phone.
M: Who is it?
D: Oh, it's my sister! Hold on. Hi, Jenny. How are you?

I = Interviewer J = Janet
I: So, Janet, tell us about your holidays.
J: OK. Well, every year I take a week's holiday in Spain ... I stay in a beautiful villa, I have three meals a day, I have a lovely room, and I meet a lot of new people.

I: That sounds nice ... but very expensive!
J: No, it's free – it costs me nothing.
I: Why's that?
J: Well, it's called Pueblo Inglés, or English village, and it's a place where Spanish people go to practise their English. So the Spanish people are the students, and they pay, but the English speakers pay nothing – we just speak English all day with the students.
I: Really? How many people are usually there? And where are they all from?
J: There are usually about twenty English speakers from Canada, the USA, England, Australia and Ireland, and twenty Spanish people from all over Spain.
I: Are they all in their twenties, like you?
J: Well, there are a lot of different ages, from early twenties to about sixty.
I: And what do you do on a typical day?
J: We have breakfast and then we do things together in pairs – an English speaker and a Spanish speaker. After fifty minutes, we have a ten-minute break and then we go with a different person. We do different activities and we speak English all day. In the evening we have a big meal together. There's only one rule. No Spanish! It's great fun – I love it!
I: It sounds great. Thanks, Janet. If you want to find out more about Pueblo Inglés, there's information on our website at

I = Interviewer M = Mike

- I: Welcome to Twenty-four seven – the programme about people and lifestyle. Today we're talking to Dr Mike McKay, who wrote the bestseller The Junk food lover's diet. So Dr McKay, is it true that on your diet, I can eat anything I want?
- M: Yes, that's right.
- I: I can eat junk food – hamburgers, pizza, chips, crisps, chocolate ...
- M: It's all fine. You can eat anything you want, and you'll lose weight.
- I: Well ... can you explain that?
- M: It's very simple. You can eat anything but you can't eat too much. So go ahead, get a hot dog every week ... but don't eat the whole thing! Eat half of it.
- I: Oh, I see. So with chocolate, for example, how much is not too much?
- M: Well, everybody loves chocolate. One bar a day is too much. On the junk food lover's diet, you can eat two bars a week – no more.
- I: This sounds great! How about pizza? How much pizza is OK on the junk food lover's diet?
- M: For lunch, you can have one piece

- of pizza.
- I: Every day?
- M: Every day.
- I: I usually eat four or five!
- M: Well, that's too much. On the junk food lover's diet, you can eat anything ... but not too much.
- I: Is it OK to have pizza for dinner?
- M: Well, pizza is very rich ... so have pizza at lunchtime, eat light foods for dinner.
- I: OK, crisps are light but surely they're bad ... so full of oil and salt.
- M: Well, one big packet of crisps every day, that's too much of course. But you can have three packets in a week.
- I: So Monday, Wednesday and Friday are crisp days!
- M: Oh, OK!
- I: How many hamburgers can I eat?
- M: One.
- I: One a day, that's not bad ...
- M: One a week! You can have one hamburger a week in a roll, with ketchup and cheese – that's all fine.
- I: And a diet cola?
- M: Or a regular cola.
- I: Really, cola with sugar ...
- M: Yup, but ...
- I: ...not too much!

P = Philip D = Denise

- P: Well, we haven't got any children so we adopted Zsilan in 1999. We went to China ... and we met Zsilan there and we brought her home with us to Sydney. She was, er, about two years old, but at first there was a problem ...
- D: Yes, she was a very intelligent little girl, but at first she was also really quiet. She ate a lot ... but she didn't talk much ... we didn't know what to do.

WORKBOOK • AUDIO SCRIPTS

- P: Yes, she was very unhappy.
- D: So we went on the internet and we looked for other families with adopted Chinese children ... and we found a website and well, we got a big surprise.
- P: Yes, we wrote about Zsila on the website. We wrote about her birthday – that it was on May 8th ...
- D: ... and a woman in Melbourne wrote back to say that her daughter, also a Chinese girl, named Lin, had the same birthday!
- P: So we put a photo of Zsila on the website, and this other woman put up a photo of Lin, and ...
- D: Here are the photos. Look at them. The girls look exactly the same.
- P: Yes, so we started to think, yes, maybe they are sisters ... maybe they're twins. So we went to Melbourne with Zsila and the two little girls met ...
- D: It was amazing, from the first moment! They looked at each other with such love, and then they laughed and played together all day.
- P: For the first time, I felt that Zsila was really happy.
- D: We were sorry to leave. Zsila and Lin never lived together but they visit each other a lot and they like the same things: dancing and swimming ... A year ago, when the girls were eight years old, we had tests, and it was true – they are sisters! And with the same birthday, of course they're twins.
- D: When we told Zsila that Lin really was her sister, she smiled and said, 'I know she's my sister.'
